LITERATURE AND LANGUAGES

ASSOCIATE IN ARTS

The literature and language emphasis offers students two principal disciplines: the study of literature in English and/or the study of foreign languages. The literature discipline introduces British, American, and world literary history through the study of writers recognized for their significant literary merit. Courses explore the boundaries of literature through genre, period, theme, language, and culture. Students may train in critical and creative writing as well. The languages discipline is sequenced to provide practical competence in French, German, Japanese, Sign Language or Spanish, as well as elementary Chinese. Students perfect their linguistic skills and study original language literary texts to appreciate the nuances of language and global culture.

This area of emphasis will prepare students for possible baccalaureate degree majors in anthropology, literature, cultural studies, and languages.

Students pursuing these studies may seek careers in publications, communications, education, media, law, international business, entertainment, administration, the arts, translation, and foreign service.
