Student Commencement Speaker

Student Commencement speaker Ebony Lewis embodies self-development and personal growth. Returning back to college and earning an Associate Degree in Business Management, an Associate Degree in Real Estate, and a Certificate of Achievement in Business Essentials empowered her to unleash untapped potential. Ebony used the opportunity of returning back to school to not just talk the talk but walk the walk by demonstrating the path to student success to her children by completing her schoolwork alongside them while they completed theirs-literally, fostering focused mindsets.

Ebony's determination allowed her children to be previewed on how to avoid distractions, stop interruptions, and prioritize daily objectives in efforts of reaching goals, which have strengthened and elevated their educational vision to new heights as well.

Ebony's consistent mission of excellence will continue with her as she journeys on to greater success. She has an insatiable appetite for inspiring others and being a positive influence. When she is not engaged in her new career as a Realtor, Ebony looks forward to completing her second novel titled, "My Life REALLY is Rainbows and Butterflies".

She would like to thank her family and friends for being a blessing during her educational career. Their love and support are invaluable and truly appreciated. Ebony also wishes to provide special thanks to Jovenes, Inc., Cerritos College Child Development Center, Pamela Sepulveda and the entire Falcon's Nest team, and Professor Mary Ellen Brady.

College Degrees

American colleges and universities confer four general types of degrees – the associate, bachelor’s, master’s, and the doctorate. These represent different levels of academic achievement.

THE ASSOCIATE IN ARTS DEGREE usually indicates the completion of two years of collegiate work above the level of high school. It is generally thought that this degree is conferred by only community and junior colleges, but, in fact, it is also granted by some four-year institutions.

THE BACHELOR’S DEGREE usually is conferred upon the completion of a four-year course of study and is the most common as well as the oldest collegiate degree used in the United States. The Bachelor of Arts degree was first conferred by Harvard College in 1642 and for 125 years was the only earned degree used in colleges and universities in the United States.

THE MASTER’S DEGREE represents one year or more of advanced study beyond the bachelor’s degree. In some instances, two years are required to complete courses in specialized fields.

THE DOCTORATE is ordinarily the most advanced degree. It typically takes at least three years beyond the bachelor’s degree, but often longer, to complete all of the requirements for this degree. There are three main types of doctorate degrees – professional, research, and honorary.

Honor Graduates

The honor graduates are identified by the gold cord worn with their regalia. Graduates who achieve a 3.3 to 3.69 grade point average will graduate “With Honors”. Those earning a 3.70 to 4.0 will graduate “With Highest Honors”. Students achieving “Honors” are designated by one asterisk (*) and students achieving “Highest Honors” are designated by two asterisks (**) in this program.

The Academic Procession

One of the most colorful parts of the commencement exercises is the academic procession, the opening part of the time-honored and traditional ceremonies. The processional includes all of the participants of the exercises, the graduating class, faculty, board of trustees, and participating guests.

The graduating class wears the solid black gown marked with no hood or color. The college's faculty, which includes its instructors, counselors, and administrative staff, along with the trustees and the program guests, wear gowns indicative of their academic rank. The processional is indeed one of the most impressive of all collegiate ceremonies.

The heritage of the cap and gown, with the colorful spectacle of the academic array, dates back to the twelfth century and the establishment of the first universities in Europe. Although there have been many changes in design and color, each individual gown, with its rank, is symbolic of achievement in a special field.

The Continental System, still used by England and the rest of Europe, allows a distinctive design and color for each college and university. In the United States, however, a uniform intercollegiate Academic Code has been adopted. The code is a simple one, regulating the colors and materials to be used. Knowledge of a few of these rules permit the viewer to "read" the costume of any graduate of an American educational institution and know at once the wearer's degree, the field or department in which it was earned, and occasionally the college from which the degree was received.

Faculty gowns are divided into three groups, dependent upon the degree of the wearer. The bachelor's gown is one made of black worsted material with long, pointed sleeves, and the front is closed at the neck. The master's gown is either of black silk or wool and has a long closed sleeve with an arc of a circle appearing near the bottom and a slit, at elbow length, for the arm. The gown is worn closed at the front. The doctor's gown is black silk with full, round, open sleeves. It is faced with velvet and has three velvet bars on each sleeve. The color of the velvet is usually black but it may be of the same color of velvet as that which edges the hood. The gown is worn closed at the front.

The traditional black mortarboard-style cap is worn for all degrees, the only difference being the tassel. For bachelor's and master's degrees, it is usually black, but occasionally it is the color of the velvet on the hood. The doctorate tassel is gold and may be worn on a tam.

The academic costume is set off by the most distinctive of all insignia, the hood. The hood is made of black material to match the gown and varies in length according to the degree: bachelor's, three feet; master's, three and one-half feet; and doctorate, four feet. Each hood has a velvet edge of varying widths according to the degree: two inches, three inches, and five inches respectively. The edging is carried around to the front of the neck to form a neck band. The color of this velvet trim indicates the field or department of learning in which the degree was earned. All hoods have silk lining of the official color or colors of the college or university conferring the degree.

Cerritos College Alma Mater

Hail, Alma Mater

Your Sons and Daughters sing of the school that they love so well

Loyal one, faithful, truthful, courageous,
These are the truths we learned beneath thy wing;

In our hearts we'll always cherish memories
In our minds we carry knowledge gained from thee

Hail Alma Mater

Blue and White we honor
Your name Cerritos College.

– Jack Wheaton, 1959
