University of California – Los Angeles

Specific articulation for the major preparation is not available. The following are recommended preparation courses for the major. Exemptions from lower division requirements will be determined by the department after admissions. Applicants are considered on the basis of academic qualifications as well as departmental screening criteria. The most important admission criteria is the supplemental application which requires a portfolio of creative work. While it may be beneficial to complete the courses listed below as preparation/experience, they are not required for admission and there is no guarantee they will satisfy major requirements and/or transfer as exact equivalents of any UCLA courses.

All students must have a cumulative 3.0 GPA at the time of application (November 30). Completion of IGETC is not required, but strongly recommended. More information may be found at: www.arts.ucla.edu/apply

Art Option

Students work in the following media: painting, drawing, sculpture, ceramics, new genres, and art theory. Preparation for the major: One course each in drawing, sculpture, painting, photography, ceramics, and new genres (performance art, video art, installation, and non-studio work); four course in art history, including one course covering each of the following art historical periods: 1850s-1920s, 1920s-1960s, 1960s-present. Exemptions from lower division requirements will be determined by the department after admission.

Recommended courses:

ART	101	Art History I: Prehistoric to Gothic	3
ART	102	Art History II: Renaissance to Rococo	3
ART	103	Art History III: Neoclassical to Present	3
ART	110	Freehand Drawing	3
