A young Navajo woman investigates displacement of Indigenous people in several countries, and devastation of the environment, caused by the same chemical companies that have exploited the land where she was born. On this political and personal journey she learns from Indigenous activists across three continents.

We will screen the film at Cerritos College with Q&A to follow. Director Ivey-Camille will conduct the Q&A via Zoom.

If disability accommodations (e.g., communications access, alternate formats) are needed to participate fully in these events, please contact accommodationsrequest@cerritos.edu within seven school days in advance.
