

2024 Women's History Month
The Power of Stories

Speaker: Dr. Vicki Ruiz
Monday, March 18th
11 a.m.-12:15 p.m. | PAC107

Sponsored by:
History and Chicano Studies Department

Dr. Vicki Ruiz will take us through her “intellectual journey” from being a community college student in her home state of Florida to becoming one of the most important and Latina historians in the United States. The stories of Latina women are what guided her life and educational journey. This journey enabled her to study history at Stanford University, and then becoming a prominent Latina historians at UC Irvine.