Women Leading Resistance Movements

Presented by: Sarra BenGhorbal

Wednesday, March 6 | 11 a.m.-12:30 p.m. | BE110

Women Leading Resistance Movements: A Powerful Force for Change. This presentation celebrates women worldwide who have been instrumental in resistance movements and in telling our stories. From Latinx, Black, and women of color in the U.S. to global activists, we delve into their pivotal roles in environmental justice, liberation struggles, social justice, and LGBTQ+ advocacy. Additionally, we recognize their contributions as storytellers, using literature, journalism, and film to amplify voices, preserve cultures, and advocate for change. Through remarkable courage, leadership, and narrative prowess, these women inspire a more equitable and inclusive world, ensuring that our stories are told authentically and inclusively.

If disability accommodations (e.g., communications access, alternate formats) are needed to participate fully in these events, please contact accommodationsrequest@cerritos.edu within seven school days in advance.
