

Black Future Month

Book Scholarship Writing Contest

Identify an issue currently affecting African diaspora communities and discuss the following:

- The issue and its effects;
- What you personally can do to contribute to a solution;
- What Cerritos College can do to contribute to a solution; and
- What the local community, state or country can do to contribute to a solution.

Essays should be at least 500 words and fully address the writing prompt. All currently enrolled Cerritos College students may enter. Essays can be submitted to dctix@cerritos.edu no later than January 26 to be eligible for consideration of book scholarship funds. Winners will be notified via email and invited to the Black Future Month event scheduled for February 1, 2024. Please include your name and student ID number with your submission.
