

2024 Women's History Month

Feminist Standpoint Epistemologies

March 20 | 11 a.m. - 12:15 p.m. | SS-137

Presenter: Will Mittendorf

This event is part of the Introduction to Philosophy course unit on Epistemology. This lecture involves an overview of Feminist epistemologies and its major concepts, such as standpoint, credibility, gaslighting, double consciousness, situated knowledge, epistemic injustice, and white/male ignorance.

