

The Legacy of Harriet Tubman

March 28 | 2-3 p.m.

Zoom:

Presented by: Dr. Sunday Obazuaye

A look at the life of Harriet Tubman not only as a woman but as a human being full of compassion, selfless sacrifice, determination, and a champion of freedom. She relentlessly “risked her own life and freedom to liberate others from slavery.”

A new commission, Harriet Tubman, Following Her Star. It was unveiled on July 4th, 2022, in Lincoln Park, Pomona, CA. The sculpture by Manuelita Brown was commissioned by Ray Adamyk, founder and president of Spectra Company, a leader in preservation and restoration of historic buildings. He plans to restore Salem Chapel, Harriet's last stop on the Underground Railroad.
