BLACK/AFRICANA STUDIES ASSOCIATE OF ARTS DEGREE

The Black/Africana Studies degree program is an interdisciplinary program designed to provide students with the opportunity to critically study the lived experience, life history and culture of Black people. Undergirded by the three basic areas of focus of the discipline of Africana Studies – which are cultural grounding, academic excellence, and social responsibility – this program is comprised of a curriculum of multidisciplinary courses that meet the general education requirements for an associate of arts degree.

SOCIAL JUSTICE STUDIES: AFRICANA STUDIES

SOCIAL JUSTICE STUDIES: AFRICANA STUDIES (AA-T) DEGREE

The Associate in Arts in Social Justice Studies: Africana Studies for Transfer (AA-T) degree is an interdisciplinary program that aims to prepare students for transfer to a CSU. Designed to provide students with an introduction to the theoretical principles of social justice, this program offers a critical study of social inequalities in and outside of the United States. Additionally, this program offers an examination of social movements and their transformative impact on the world. This program pays particular attention to the study of the life history, culture, and social justice traditions of Black people. This program is open to all students and may be of particular interest to those who wish to pursue advocacy work for underrepresented groups and become change agents in the hard yet necessary work of re-imagining a more equitable society. This program is designed to prepare students for seamless transfer to a CSU and toward a major in Africana Studies or those majors pertinent to race, ethnicity, and/or social justice.
