TRANSFER PREPARATION

University of California – Irvine

This major does not require the completion of prerequisites for admission as a transfer student.

Students majoring in Spanish must choose one of the three following emphases: Literature and Culture; Spanish for Future Teachers; Cinema.

Students are required to complete the Common Lower Division major preparation (above) for the University of California prior to admission. In addition, they are required to complete at least one course from each of four areas (Writing, Literature, History, and Philosophy) for a total of four semester courses. A complete list of course options is available from assist.org. Please consult a counselor, if necessary, to obtain this list.

University of California – Los Angeles

UCLA offers Spanish as a major although no formal articulation exists. Students are recommended to complete the Common Lower Division major preparation for the University of California prior to admission.

In addition, one Spanish civilization course, and one Spanish American civilization course are required prior to admission. Cerritos College does not offer equivalents for these requirements so they will have to be taken at UCLA.

University of California – Riverside

No additional requirements other than the Common Lower Division major preparation for University of California previously listed. Intermediate level proficiency in Spanish is required.

Completion of the above course work is not mandatory for admission into this major. However, students are advised to complete as much lower division course preparation as possible prior to transfer, to be ready for upper division course work. Students choose from one of the following 3 options: Cultural Studies, Linguistics, or Literature. All course requirements under these options are upper division.
