III. Student Court Reports

III.01 Advisor's Reports

Diana thanked all the members of court for being present. She is open to all members of the court proposing new ideas. The diversity awards are accepting nominations. Black History Month events will begin today. Cerritos College Student Life has created a virtual COVID-19 peer support group to start a conversation. The first meeting for the support group will be 1/26 at 5:00 pm. ASCC is holding elections and there will be an informational session headed by court.

III.02 Chief Justice Report

Chief Justice Peña reminded court of the Townhall meeting February 10th at 4:30pm. ASCC Got Talent will be held February 12th at 6:00pm.

III.03 Executive Report

President Escobar begins by informing court of a complaint was made to the coordinating committee. The student wasn't informed through schedule plus that their class would require them to keep their camera on. She cannot drop the class because she must be a full-time student, and this can affect her financial aid. The faculty senate will try to find a solution. It is important for court members to be aware of these events. FLI applications are available now and would be a good experience for student leaders. Leadership retreat is 1/29 and the last day to sign up is 1/26. The bylaws need to be fixed to fit the campus demographics and technology available today. President Escobar relieves her time to Vice President Avila. Avila lets court know that they will have a voice. By creating a joint legislation, there will be more involvement and unity between the branches. They would like to provide as much representation as possible. The food distribution is 1/27 at 8:00 am.

III.04 Associate Justices Reports

Justice Fischer informs court of the deadline to submit a FLI application, 1/29 at 11:59 pm.

IV. Unfinished Business

IV.01 Develop Spring Election Outline, Action Item- (20 Minutes)

Court reviewed the first half of the Spring Election Outline. A few changes will be made to the outline. Campaigning on the days of the election will be allowed but there will be no new materials. Vice President Avila discusses the signature requirement. Election dates are 4/7-4/8. Chief Justice Peña will send a revised copy of the outline to the rest of the court members.

Justice Kwon moves to table item IV.01. Justice Gutierrez seconds. No objections. Motion Passes.

V. New Business
