IV. Unfinished Business

V. New Business

V.01 Student Learning Outcomes Presentation

Student Learning Outcomes Coordinator Lee Anne McIlroy encouraged student leaders to get involved in a big revision process for SLOs, or Student Learning Outcomes. The coronavirus pandemic has changed our learning environment. Student feedback will be helpful in setting the SLOs that will bring the best possible outcome. Each course, program/degree, and school has SLOs. Changes to SLOs will be considered at every level.

Treasurer Sanabria - Where can we talk about this?

Lee Anne McIlroy- Start the discussion on SLOs by talking with Professors. SLOs ensure that students will attain skills rather than only attain a piece of paper. Learning is more than just grades. SLOs sets the goals for learning in each course, degree, or program.

Treasurer Sanabria - What are your thoughts on hybrid learning?

Lee Anne McIlroy- According to research, hybrid learning is the best mode of learning.

Treasurer Sanabria - Disservice to students by offering complete online classes? It's the only option to take a class

Lee Anne McIlroy- Cerritos College is not offering a disservice to students. A 100% online environment is the only option for some students who need to balance their education with their full-time jobs.

Delgadillo joined the meeting at 2:21 PM. Quorum re-established at 10/12.

V.02 Student Engagement Resources Presentation

Advisor Jara presented, via recording, student leaders with information about student engagement resources so that students involved in Student Life programs will be able to utilize resources to participate in student government, club, and organization processes.

Dean Miller provided a quiz on student engagement resources activity. Student leaders in Cabinet got a 100% on the quiz. The items are the following: [#1] There should be at least 26 senators for there to be business in the Student Senate. Dean Miller encouraged leaders to invite their students to become senators because there are currently 10 senators at the moment. [#2] An accommodation statement should be included on each Cerritos College flyer. Refer to the Cerritos College club guide for the statement. [#3.] There are 39 videos in the Cerritos Student Life YouTube channel. [#4.] There are currently 37 active clubs and organizations on campus.
