4 Reference:

- 5 Education Code Sections 87150 et seq.;
- 6 ACCJC Accreditation Standard III.A.14

7 The District plans for and provides all personnel with appropriate opportunities for continued
8 professional development, consistent with the District's mission. The District will evaluate 9 these programs and use the results of the evaluation as the basis for improvement.

10 Cerritos College encourages employees to participate in professional development activities
11 which enhance performance in current or potential assignments. Such participation will be 12 supported through the established budget in alignment with the District's goals and/or within 13 the terms of negotiated collective bargaining agreements.

14 Professional Development may include, but is not limited to:

- 15 • improvement in teaching;
- 16 • activities that support student success or job skill enhancement;
- 17 • maintenance of current academic and technical knowledge and skills;
- 18 • retraining to meet changing instructional, support or operational needs;
- 19 • development of innovations in instructional and administrative techniques and 20 program effectiveness;
- 21 • computer and technological proficiency programs;
- 22 • interpersonal communication (i.e. customer service, leadership, mentorship)
- 23 • courses and training implementing equal opportunity, equity, diversity, inclusion, 24 and professional advancement; and
- 25 • other activities determined by the Board of Governors of the California Community
26 Colleges to be related to educational and professional development.

27 Management Employees

28 Management employees are encouraged to engage in a systematic program of professional
29 development. The President/Superintendent, upon recommendation of the appropriate
30 Vice President and supervising manager (if any), is authorized to approve the use of 31 available funds to support professional development of management employees. The 32 procedures for application and use of professional development funds will be maintained in 33 the Management Employees' Handbook.

34 Faculty Employees

35 Faculty members are encouraged to maintain currency with information, concepts, laws and 36 ideas in their disciplines and with best practices in teaching and learning. Also see BP/AP

37 4005 titled Duties and Responsibilities of Faculty Members, and provisions of the faculty
38 collective bargaining agreement.

39 Classified Employees

40 Classified Employees are encouraged to engage in professional development opportunities.
41 The District has negotiated a Professional Growth Program that is contained in the classified
42 collective bargaining agreement and the program will be administered according to the 43 terms and conditions set forth in the collective bargaining agreement.

44 Confidential Employees

45 Confidential Employees are encouraged to engage in a systematic program of professional 46 development. It is the responsibility of the employee to apply for professional growth and 47 meet all guidelines and procedures for the program. The procedures for use, application, 48 and approval process of professional development funds will be maintained in the 49 Confidential Employees' Handbook.

50 All Other Employees

51 All other employees are encouraged to pursue professional development opportunities
52 under prior approval from their immediate supervisor.
