5 The Board of Trustees is committed to employing qualified equity minded administrators, 6 faculty, and staff members who are dedicated to student success. To further this 7 commitment, the District will support professional development opportunities related to 8 diversity, inclusion, and equity. The Board of Trustees recognizes that diversity, equity, 9 and inclusion in the academic environment fosters cultural awareness, promotes mutual 10 understanding and respect, and provides suitable role models for all students and 11 employees. The District supports the goals of diversity, inclusion, and equity, and 12 provides equal opportunity for all qualified candidates.
