Active Shooter Incidents

- An active shooter event can occur at any time or any place
- Active shooter incidents are unpredictable and evolve quickly; most incidents are over within minutes
- Typically, there is no pattern in the selection of victims in an active shooter incident
- Common motives include anger, revenge, ideology, and untreated mental illness

Emergency Communications and notifications

- NIXEL Emergency Text Messaging Systems
- Cerritos College Twitter Page
- Safety Alerts located on College Emergency Page
- Public Address System
- Information posted on Electronic Marques and Bulletin Boards
- E-Mails

How to Respond to an Active Shooter

- RUN
 - Have an escape route and plan in mind
 - Leave your belongings behind
 - Keep your hands visible
- HIDE
 - Hide in an area out of the shooter's view
 - Block entry to your hiding place and lock the door
 - Silence your cell phone
- FIGHT
 - As a last resort and only when your life is in imminent danger
 - Attempt to incapacitate the shooter
 - Act with physical aggression and throw items at the active shooter

* CALL 911 WHEN SAFE TO DO SO ****

How to Respond to Law Enforcement

- Remain calm and follow instructions
- Immediately raise hands and spread fingers
- Keep hands visible at all times
- Avoid making quick movements toward officers such as attempting to hold on to them for safety
- Avoid pointing, screaming and/or yelling
- Do not stop to ask officers for help or direction when evacuating, just proceed in the direction from which officers are entering the premises

How to Respond to Law Enforcement

- Information You Should Provide to Law Enforcement or 911 Operator
 - Location of Active Shooter
 - Number of shooters
 - Physical description of shooters
 - Number and types of weapons held by shooters
 - Number of potential victims at the location

Keys to Maintaining a Safe Campus

- Maintain open lines of communication with Students, Faculty and Staff
- Annual Participation in Great American Shake Out, Evacuation Drill
- Develop and Implement an Annual Shelter in Place Drill
- Continued training for Campus Community on Active Shooter Response
- Continue developing resources outside the campus to develop best practices for emergency responses
