

A Reassessment in Historiography and Gender: Donatello's Bronze David in the Twenty-First Century

Room FA 133

Tuesday, May 8 at 12:30 pm

The Cerritos College Visual and Cultural Studies Program presents a lecture by Dr. Peter Weller about Donatello's David. Dr. Weller will present his research about the varied interpretations of this seminal early Renaissance sculpture and his conclusions about its much-debated homoeroticism.

Dr. Peter Weller, PhD

Peter Weller is an art historian, stage and screen actor, and director. He received his PhD from UCLA in 2014 and wrote his dissertation about the architect and theorist Leon Battista Alberti. Weller has appeared in more than 70 films and television programs, including the acclaimed History Channel series Engineering an Empire.

