

Sexual Assault Awareness Month April 2020

Sexual Assault Awareness Month (SAAM) is a national event to bring awareness to issues around sexual assault, harassment, and abuse. Our goal at Cerritos College is to provide education, support and prevention to students, employees, and community members.

APRIL 8 | 2 p.m. - 3 p.m.

Forensic Nurse Workshop

Learn more in this online workshop about how nurses support investigations around sexual assault. A practicing Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE) will offer insight and answer questions about this important and trauma-informed work. There will be a free giveaway.

APRIL 14 | 2 sessions

12:30 p.m. - 2 p.m. | 2:30 p.m. - 4 p.m.

Tools for Healing and Justice to Support Survivors

Tiombe Wallace, LMFT, will offer tools for healing, empathy, and justice through an online workshop. It can be hard to know how to support someone, including oneself, who has experienced sexual and/or personal violence. Tiombe will help participants build those skills and help attendees to understand how systems of power contribute to everyday violence that occurs between individuals. Participants will engage in activities and walk away with helpful tools.

APRIL 15 | All Day

Clothesline Project

A digital engagement activity of messages, stories, and reactions to those who have experienced interpersonal violence or sexual assault. The Clothesline Project educates students and the community that violence is a problem everywhere; help is available; there is hope; and there is a path to healing. Check out @CerritosCollegeFalconSafe on Instagram for contest details.

APRIL 16 | 1 p.m. - 3 p.m.

Art With Impact presents: Movies for Mental Health

This online, film-based workshop will include online break out discussions and a panel of on and off campus resources. This workshop explores the mental health impacts that sexual violence can have on survivors and communities such as anxiety, depression, PTSD, fear, and eating disorders.

APRIL 22 | 11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

Meditation for Healing and Resilience

This online event will be a meditation practice to foster healing and mindfulness about the trauma and hardship associated with sexual and other violence.

APRIL 23 | 11 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Teal Table Talk

An online conversation co-facilitated by the Campus Victim's Advocate and Stephany Ramos, Human Trafficking Coordinator, from the YWCA of Greater Los Angeles. The discussions will focus on human sex trafficking and will allow attendees a FalconSafe space to address their issues and concerns related to sexual violence. There will be free a giveaway.

APRIL 27 | 12 p.m. - 1:15 p.m.

Title IX Open House

An online meet and greet with Title IX campus partners. Attendees will learn more about how campus resources provide support with experiences of sexual assault, discrimination, harassment, and more.

APRIL 29 | All Day

Denim Day

Wearing jeans has become a symbol of protest against the destructive attitudes about sexual harassment, abuse, assault, and rape. This is a global protest led by Peace Over Violence to address the stereotypes and misconceptions of sexual violence, as well as promote justice and safety. Students and employees are welcome to participate in the online activity. Check out @CerritosCollegeFalconSafe on Instagram for contest details.

RSVP to events at:

www.cerritos.edu/SAAM2020RSVP

Questions?

Contact AGray@Cerritos.edu

If disability accommodations (e.g. communication access, alternate formats) are needed to participate fully in any event, please submit your request to AccommodationsRequest@cerritos.edu within seven days in advance of the event.

Cerritos College
Office of Diversity, Compliance and Title IX

eliminating racism
empowering women
ywca
greater los angeles

