DOMESTIC VIOLENCE
 AWARENESS MONTH
 — OCTOBER —

Domestic Violence Awareness Month 2022 – October has been a time to acknowledge domestic violence survivors and be a voice for its victims. Domestic violence is prevalent in every community, and affects all people regardless of age, socio-economic status, sexual orientation, gender, race, religion, or nationality. Our campuses have united to bring education and awareness to the issues within this field that are impacting our communities.

Stalking Must Stop (Flex Credit)

Oct. 4 | 5-6:15 p.m.

Stalking Must Stop founder, Debbie Riddle, will provide a personal account of the impact stalking had on her family. The speaker will also provide an educational component that describes stalking behaviors, legal perspectives, and national resources like safety planning.

Online Dating Safety (Flex Credit)

Oct. 5 | 5-6 p.m.

Adam Dodge with EndTab will present on modern dating and dating apps. There will be information about red flags, digital safety in healthy relationships, and ways to make yourself much safer online.

Navigating Tech-enabled Trauma (Flex Credit)

Oct. 12 | 5-6 p.m.

Adam Dodge with EndTab will discuss the challenges surrounding tech-enabled trauma, what the future holds, and important skills for surviving and thriving beyond digital abuse.

Preventing & Addressing Image Based Abuse (Flex Credit)

Oct. 19 | 12-1 p.m.

Adam Dodge with EndTab will focus on safety tips, current concerns, and response options for image-based abuse.

[*] Presentations will be recorded and uploaded onto your campuses webpage for viewing at a later date. Access to the recordings will only be granted to college affiliates with a valid account.
