Global Roundtable: Escape and Express

Living Learning Center in Santa Barbara Building | 1-2:30 p.m.

- We offer a space international students to come together to process their feelings following recent events locally, nationally and globally. This event is a chance for our students be in community with each other, creatively express their feelings, and process the results. Campus resources will be shared on how to navigate these feelings. This program is exclusively intended to provide a space to process our emotions/reactions/feelings and how they influence the way we show up each day, and the overall impact. Lunch will be provided.
