I can't believe Samuel L. Jackson has never won an Oscar

He is unapologetically himself.

His work in Pulp Fiction earned him a nomination, but of course it went to Martin Landau.

Did they nominate just one African American person for the f of it?

Is it because his vocabulary consists of the f word?

Pulp Fiction was a great movie, I mean it really set the bar!

Jackson's monologue was one of the greats.

If you haven't heard it,

If you haven't seen it,

watch it,

learn it,

experience it

you may not get it,

but you will enjoy it.

Ezekiel 25:17

"Oh I'm sorry did I break your concentration?"
