

Faculty Senate

Curriculum Workflow Process, Departments Chairs Role

Approved: May 07, 2024

The Faculty Senate affirms the following:

- In curriculum matters, the signature of a department chair during the course creation or revision process is intended to acknowledge receipt rather than signify approval or rejection. This signature must represent the collective will of the department.
 - The language addressing this issue should be clarified in the Curriculum Committee Handbook.
-