Introductions/Welcome

The committee introduced themselves to Karen Torres the new ASCC committee member.

Minutes – May 16, 2017

Minutes – August 22, 2017

April motioned to approve both sets of minutes

Vanessa seconded the motion

Diversity Audit – Guest: AJ from Student Activities

The updated version of the Campus Diversity Audit/Review was passed out to the committee.

AJ will provide a list of the current advisors and additional clubs for the audit.

Committee Suggestions regarding the Diversity Audit:

- April – Have an explanation on the programs in case they are not well known
- Nick – Use this component to encourage groups to connect with each other
- Valyncia – Have a longer conversation about diversity, either a forum or a resource fair
- Karen – from a student's perspective a fair may draw more student's in

AJ – the next club information day is set for February, this may be a good day to add the programs attendance

Subcommittee Discussion

The subcommittee list was reviewed.

Amna Jara was added to a subcommittee

The list will be sent to the committee once the subcommittees create meeting dates and send them in to Monica or Valyncia.

Climate Survey Planning

Tabled this item for the October agenda

Programming/Outreach Updates

Valyncia gave the following updates:

- Safe Zone Dates: September 22, 2017 and October 13, 2017
- Vet Net Ally Update: October 6, 2017 9-1 am
- AB 540: November 3, 2017, 8:30 – 1 pm
- Native American Indian Outreach: Valyncia set up a Cerritos College resource table at the American Indian Day 16th Annual Community gathering and family picnic this past weekend, September 9. Valyncia met a UCLA representative who informed her about a free 6-day residential program called Native & Pacific Islander Summer Intensive Transfer Experience (SITE). The program teaches students to navigate the community college system with the goal of transferring and making a smooth and successful transition to a UC campus. The program focuses on the history, educational pipeline, and resources available to Native American and Pacific Islander communities.

Expedited Budget Requests Options

Valyncia hopes to have a Fund and Expectations form ready for the Spring semester.

Conference Recap – Guest – David Betancourt

David attended a 3-day training called Scholarship of Teaching and Learning Institute

David presented a video to the committee

The focus for the conference was the Milner Mindset.

He hopes to use this mindset to overlap with CRTL and NFOP
