

The CAIR Team Presents...

Fall 2020 Workshops

CREATING SUPPORT FOR TRANSGENDER AND GENDER DIVERSE STUDENTS

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 21ST

11:00AM-12:30PM

VIA ZOOM

- Those attending the session will be able to:
 - Develop a deeper understanding of gender and avoid building walls up, but instead bring walls down with transgender students
 - Understand that providing support starts by empathizing with people in gender transition and gaining understanding about how stigma regarding transition impacts a person's reactions and behavior
 - Identify and understand best practices for serving transgender and gender diverse students in crisis and transition

MENTAL HEALTH & WELLNESS: WORKING WITH STUDENTS PRESENTING PARANOIA

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4TH

11:00AM-12:00PM

VIA ZOOM

- Those attending the session will be able to:
 - Identify when students might be presenting with hallucinations and other sensory experiences.
 - Learn communication strategies when working with students exhibiting paranoia
 - Understand how to connect students exhibiting paranoia to helpful mental health resources.

Workshops open to all! No RSVP Required!

If disability accommodations (e.g. communication access, alternative formats) are needed to participate fully in any event, please submit your request to AccommodationsRequest@cerritos.edu within seven days in advance of the event.

Questions please contact oscg@cerritos.edu
www.cerritos.edu/CAIR

