

TalonNet - Creating a Link to Canvas on TN Home Page

Step 1: Select your new course from the navigation bar. If you do not see your new course, select "More Sites."

The screenshot shows the TalonNet interface with the 'More Sites' dropdown menu open. A red box highlights the 'SELECT NEW COURSE' option. A red arrow points to the 'More Sites' dropdown. A red box highlights the 'Help' option in the dropdown menu. A red box highlights the 'Tutorial' option in the dropdown menu. A red box highlights the 'Help' option in the dropdown menu.

Step 2: Select the Edit icon  located on the upper middle of the screen.

The screenshot shows the TalonNet interface with the 'Edit' icon circled in red. The 'Edit' icon is located in the upper middle of the screen, next to the 'Home' button. The interface shows the 'Home' page with various navigation options and a calendar for August 2016.

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
31	1	2	3	4	5	6
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
21	22	23	24	25	26	27
28	29	30	31	1	2	3

TalonNet – Creating a Link to Canvas on TN Home Page

Step 3: Click on the Edit Box and type the message you will like for your students to see. To add a link to Canvas, highlight the word you will like to link, then select the link button.

Customize Site Info Display

* Title

Frame Height

Description

body div div p span a Word Count: 20

Site Info URL

If specified, this URL will be shown instead of the Site description.

TalonNet – Creating a Link to Canvas on TN Home Page

Step 4: Type cerritos.instructure.com in the URL box, then select Ok. Once you have completed creating your link to Canvas, click Update Options to finish this process.

Link

Link Info Target Advanced

Link Type
URL

Protocol http://

URL

Browse Server

OK Cancel

Frame Height 600 pixels

Description

Source Undo Redo Copy Paste Link Unlink List Indent Outdent Bold Italic Underline Strikethrough Font Color Background Color Text Color Font Size Font Family

Here

body p a

Word Count: 1

Site Info URL

If specified, this URL will be shown instead of the Site description.

Update Options Cancel