

Office of the President

August 20, 2023

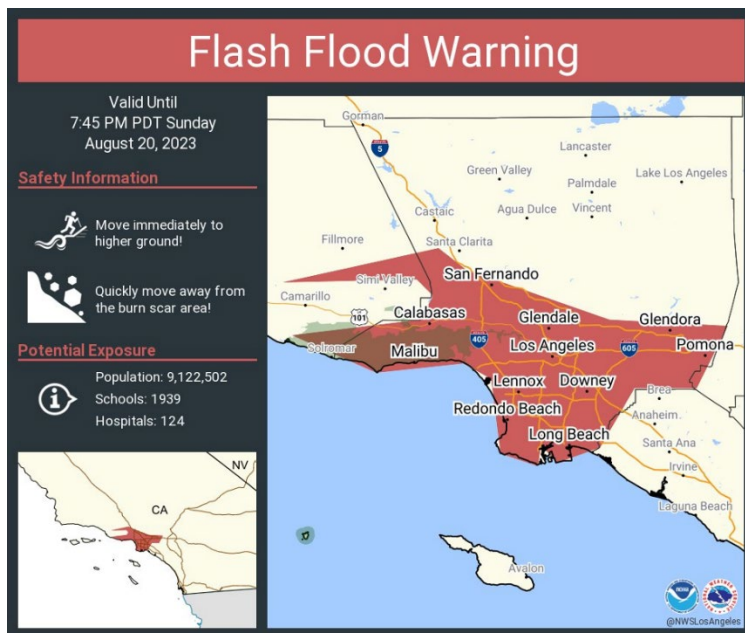

Dear Colleagues,

A Flash Flood Warning is in effect throughout the local area until 7:45 PM PDT tonight, Sunday, August 20. We could face power and network interruptions at Cerritos College.

The campus is expected to be open tomorrow. You will receive an emergency text alert IF a campus closure is required.

Individuals associated with the College as employees and students have automatically opted into the College's emergency text alert messaging system. Opting in is also an option via texting the keyword "Cerritos" to 226787.

Stay safe out there!

Jose
