I Am Frida Kahlo* Depicts Tumultuous Life of the Famous Mexican Artist

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: October 21, 2019

Media Contact: Aya Abelon, Public Affairs; (562) 653-7878

WHAT: Written and directed by Cerritos College Spanish Professor Froylán Cabuto, I Am Frida Kahlo is an exhilarating Spanish-language performance that depicts the tumultuous life of one of the most influential female artists of the twentieth century. The presentation depicts a reincarnation of Frida Kahlo's life that gives her a voice to tell her own, true story. The original show features live music, dance performances, and digital media elements, and recounts Frida Kahlo's alter-ego who becomes her own critic. The stage play explores the creative process by which Frida Kahlo developed some of her most outstanding art pieces while touching on the social and political issues of her time.

SHOWTIMES: Friday, November 15
