

SLO Presentation

ACLR

Date: 09/11/2019

Disabled Student Programs and Services
ACLR
PSLO No PSLOs
CSLO
ACLR86 - Introduction to Universal Design for Learning <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Students identify individual learning preferences and academic strengths and weaknesses and apply the principles of universal design for learning• Students relate the principles of Universal Design apply Assistive/access technology based on strengths and weaknesses to specific academic coursework.
ACLR87 - Using Scan-Read Technology in Universal Design for Learning <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Students relate their individual learning preferences which incorporates the principles of Universal Design for Learning toward their academic goal.• Students employ basic of text-to-voice technology to complete their academic coursework.
ACLR90 - Orientation for the Student with Disabilities <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Students identify support services.• Students identify campus activities in which they might participate.• Students recognize the choices involved in the development of educational plans.
ACLR91 - Career Exploration for the Student with Disabilities <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Students identify the resources for job seeking activities.
ACLR101 - Increasing Your Access Potential <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Students will demonstrate how to utilize support services.• Students will identify the components of Emotional Intelligence.• Students will recognize what a Growth Mindset is, and how this Mindset will benefit them in fulfilling their educational plans and academic potential.