Student Success Definition

Counseling Services

The Counseling Services department is committed to empowering diverse students and providing information and knowledge to assist students develop skills to define and accomplish personal, academic, and career pathways. Counseling sessions will implement strategies to help students make informed decisions to matriculate and achieve their educational goals. The Counseling Department will connect students to campus and community resources to create meaningful educational/career experiences so that students can earn certificates, A.A. degrees, become transfer ready and or seek gainful employment in a related area of study.

CAS Domain	Measurable Outcomes	Indicators of Success
Mission	• Number of certificates • Number of A.A. Degrees • Number of Transfer Applications	• Students are aware of the knowledge and relevant information, services, resources, and co-curricular activities that facilitate student learning and development to increase educational preparedness and skills to encourage course progression and timely completion of educational goals. (CAS 2.2 Program Information and Services, 3.1 Program Contribution to Student Learning)
Programs and Services	• Number of abbreviated ed plans • Number of students attending orientation	Onboarding • Attend Orientation • Develop abbreviated education plan • Career Exploration and informed decision making
Programs and Services	• Number of students meeting with a counselor at least once per year • Number of students meeting with a counselor once per semester • Number of students participating in co-curricular activity	Navigating towards Success • Connect with counselor at least once a semester or yearly • Develop comprehensive education plan by 20 units • Participate in at least 1 co-curricular activity • Early alert- utilize predictive analytics and support to proactively outreach to at-risk students