

Human Trafficking and Stalking Awareness Month

bit.ly/ccHTAM22

bit.ly/ccM4MH22

bit.ly/TealTableTalks

January
18

5 p.m.–6 p.m.

*Stalking Must Stop/Speak Out

bit.ly/ccHTAM22 Flex Credit

Stalking Must Stop founder will provide a personal account of the impact stalking had on her family. This speaker lost her sister to stalking and has made immense efforts to educate communities and raise awareness about this pervasive social issue.

January
19

5 p.m.–6 p.m.

Art With Impact's Presents Movies for Mental Health

bit.ly/ccM4MH22

Movies for Mental Health supports student mental health through film-based discussion. The topics being covered during this event will include human trafficking in the community, and mental health resources available to survivors/students. There will be a panel of professionals/survivors speaking during this event.

January
20

5 p.m.–6:15 p.m.

*SART Examinations 101

bit.ly/ccHTAM22 Flex Credit

A Los Angeles Forensic Nurse Specialist will discuss working with trafficked survivors during a SART examination. The policy/procedures and collaborative trauma-informed care involved in treating/caring for survivors.

January
25

5 p.m.–6:15 p.m.

*Disparities in Human Trafficking

bit.ly/ccHTAM22 Flex Credit

A representative from the YWCA GLA, Stephany Ramos - Human Trafficking Specialist, will cover the basics around Human Sex Trafficking. The discussion will also cover the racial and gender disparities within the modern day slavery field.

January
26

5 p.m.–6:15 p.m.

*Journey Out - Vulnerable Populations

bit.ly/ccHTAM22 Flex Credit

A representative from Journey Out will discuss the support they provide to survivors of human sex trafficking including the most vulnerable populations of the field (i.e., LGBTQ+ and foster youth).

January
27

11:30 a.m.–1 p.m.

Teal Table Talks: My Relationship Boundaries ... Revealed!

bit.ly/TealTableTalks

This workshop will include a healing arts activity to introduce participants to the concept of boundaries and having healthy levels of independence in their intimate relationships. Personal supplies are necessary (Paper, Pens, Colored Pencils/Markers).

January
27

5 p.m.–6 p.m.

*College Campuses and Advocates

bit.ly/ccHTAM22 Flex Credit

There will be discussion of the Red Zone, different types of traffickers, and the support available on campuses. Stephany Ramos, YWCA GLA's Human Trafficking Specialist, will cover the skills necessary to address working with individuals dealing with being trafficked.