University of California Transfer Pathway requirements

If you're a California community college student and know which major you want to study, you can follow one of UC Transfer Pathways to start preparing for your major and keep your UC campus options open. The Transfer Pathways offer a single set of courses you can take that will transfer to any of the nine UC undergraduate campuses. This site shows you which UC transferable courses from ASSIST (<http://www.assist.org>) meet the specific course expectations for a given Pathway. Subsequent changes can occur at any time; please return to this page periodically for the most current information.

<http://pathwaysguide.universityofcalifornia.edu/college-pathways/0/0>.

Following a Transfer Pathway does not guarantee admission to UC. Admission to different UC campuses and majors varies in competitiveness depending on how many students apply and how many slots are available. As a result, the minimum GPA and grade requirements for particular courses may vary from campus to campus. Make sure to look on the campus admissions websites (<http://admission.universityofcalifornia.edu/campuses/index.html>) to find minimum expected grade point averages for the major you are interested in.

University of California - Los Angeles

Economics, B.A. or Business Economics, B.A.

THESE MAJORS ARE HIGHLY SELECTIVE. In addition to the UC Transfer Pathway requirements listed above, all preparatory courses should be completed by the spring term just prior to transfer. All courses must be taken for a letter grade. The calculus course requirements should be met as early as possible. After transfer to UCLA, students may not change their major to Economics if they were originally admitted to a major outside the Department of Economics.
