CERRITOS COLLEGE HISTORY (AA-T) ASSOCIATE IN ARTS DEGREE IN HISTORY FOR TRANSFER

Earning an Associate in Arts in History for Transfer degree provides students with a broad understanding of how the past has shaped the present-day United States and the world. Majors explore humanity's social development, including racial and ethnic diversity, gender roles, and migration; examine cultural accomplishments, including language, religion, civilization, and arts; and analyze political shifts, including the rise and fall of nations, spread of political ideals, social movements, revolutions, leaders, and wars. The study of history strengthens students' abilities to communicate clearly in writing and speech, and to evaluate claims and evidence to draw justified conclusions. Completing a History AA-T degree also prepares students for seamless transfer to History programs at California State University, University of California, and other four-year colleges.
